Situated at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac, about 2km from Beg-Meil and 3km from Fouesnant, which both offer a broad choice of facilities, including excellent sea-food restaurants. Closer to hand is the pretty sandy cove shown below, sheltered from the Atlantic rollers and facing eastwards across the Baie de la Forêt towards the town of Concarneau.

The house is built to high standard and overlooks a pleasant, quiet and secluded garden. Accommodation includes a very tasteful bedroom with double bed and very nice furniture, eg bedside tables and lamps, wardrobe and chest of drawers etc. Doors lead through the conservatory to the garden, and a sliding door to the well- decorated bathroom (shower, basin, bidet, WC). There is a 2nd WC and cloakroom by the front door, also a small utility room with washing machine, and a door to the spacious and tasteful living room, beginning with the very neat and well-equipped kitchen (double sink, 4-ring hob, eye-level oven, microwave, fridge etc). Matching sofa and armchairs and complementary elegant furniture and sliding doors to the spacious patio and secluded garden all contribute to make this a practical, peaceful and welcoming cottage.
